PROPERTY.
Building sites in the charming town of Riverside are offered for sale at PRICES which place them WITHIN REACH OF THE POPULAR DEMAND.
No restrictions are made regarding the purchaser's improvement of the property which he buys. At the same time special inducements are offered to building and resident purchasers.
A home at this villa town of the West will prove a real blessing to every pleasure-seeker or over-worked city man who may share its enjoyments.
Woodland, greensward, boating, fishing, and driving facilities, and many other means for healthful happiness are here offered. We are environed by pleasure resorts unrivalled in this part of the United States; while our location is, in itself, all that can be wished—high and dry, picturesque in the extreme, and with ready means of access which will soon be so improved as to be unrivalled about Chicago. No pains are being spared to benefit and beautify our property. It is our desire and expectation that Riverside shall far excel all other Chicago suburbs in every feature that makes home agreeable, healthful, and convenient.

GAMES AND PASTIMES.

Second Defeat of the Season for the White Stockings.

The Philadelphia Athletics Win, beating by a Score of 15 to 14.

The Game Lost by Minor Wrecked Fly Behind the Bat.

Trotting at Prospect Park—

Base Ball.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The third game of base ball this season was played to-day between the White Stockings, of Chicago, and the Athletics, of this city. The interest of the last and opening circus was increased from the fact that the Chicago Club had lost four games out of the first seven, and that the Athletics would go far toward securing the Championship pennant if they could defeat Hatfield's men. The betting before the game was called stood even, and the Chicagos were backed by a number of Washington, who visited the city for the purpose of witnessing the game. The following is a correct
